

Resources created by sex workers and sex work organisations

If you want to become a better sex worker ally it is important to listen to sex workers.

To help you do that we have collected books, podcasts and research that is made by sex workers or organisations that work directly with sex workers for you to learn from and engage with.

If you like to learn through reading, here are some books which are written by sex workers and will help you understand the landscape sex workers are existing in.

- Revolting prostitutes by Juno Mac and Molly Smith
- Playing the Whore by Melissa Gira Grant
- Hustling Verse - an Anthology of Sex Worker's Poetry
- The Ethical Stripper by Stacey Claire
- Truth and Lies - An Anthology of Writing and Art by Sex Workers

If you would rather listen to sex workers speak on their live, then try listening to these podcasts.

- Niki English speaks to Sara Pascoe – Listen here
- Our very own Bella speaks to Sara Pascoe – Listen here
- Jason Domino Speaks to Sara Pascoe – Listen here

If you prefer to watch videos made by sex workers, here are a few we suggest starting with.

- An animated documentary made by SWARM
- The laws that sex workers really want from Juno Mac
- Respect for sex workers from Alexandra Oliveira

If you would like to know more about sex work law and policy try these papers and fact sheets.

- Fact sheets from The English Collective of Prostitutes \(ECP\)
- Research from National Ugly Mugs
- Hookers Against Hardship Alliance